

Lily Mensah Yeboah

Sassy Spirited and motivational is the award winning brand called Lily Mensah Yeboah! She's an internationally savvy personal brand connoisseur with a flair for creating professional and endearing presence online, in person and on paper. Her work spans over 15 years; the last 10 have taken her as far as Accra, London and Space Coast, Florida. She believes that if something hasn't been done before doesn't necessarily mean it cannot be done and says WHY NOT to life's challenges. Lily uses her experience as a brand consultant and social entrepreneur to create compelling and visible results for her clients and their brands. She says "My job is to see your brand sparkle!"

This fire-brand hosts her own radio show called "Tea With Lily" where she interviews the great and the good on tips and tricks for professional and personal growth.

"Lily has encouraged me to think of my brand holistically rather than purely as a set of workplace skills. This focus has enabled me to create a more three dimensional picture of who I am. In this age of social networking your virtual profile needs to reflect authentically who you are. Lily's positive attitude has brought me to life!" Gillian Hannon. LL.M

"Lily is a very reliable and committed person whose contribution became increasingly important to me and the Committee. Lily has a warm and friendly personality and is a pleasure to work with. She also keeps you focussed on the task in hand. Lord Soley MP
